Heap of praise

GRAMMY Award-winning recording artist and composer Imogen Heap has become a patron of Saint Francis Hospice.

Imogen, 38, who lives in Havering and has a 19 month-old daughter, has raised money and awareness of the hospice over the years and plans to continue doing so.

Her songs can be found in films including Shrek 2, The Lion, The Witch and The Wardrobe, and TV shows such as Six Feet Under, the OC, CSI, and Criminal Minds. She has also composed the music for the new Harry Potter and the Cursed Child play, which opens on July 30 at the Palace Theatre in London.

"Living locally and seeing the good work the hospice does has made me want to be involved with the charity," said Imogen, who has been nominated for five Grammy Awards and won two.

"Ever since I can remember the hospice has been there and as I was growing up I always saw the hospice shops around."

Imogen joins fellow patrons including TV and radio presenter Richard Madeley, and sports promoter Barry Hearn.

Pam Court, chief executive officer at the hospice in Havering-atte-Bower, said: "We are absolutely delighted that Imogen has agreed to become a patron."

"She is a very talented musician who has been a fantastic ambassador for the hospice, giving up her time to entertain patients and supporters. Her support is invaluable in enabling us to reach out to even more people so they are aware of the excellent services we provide to our community and the huge fundraising challenge we face every year."

Heat Holders Leggings are much better than awkward jeans, with the added benefit of a super soft fur-like lining that feels lovely on the skin, and are size specific for the perfect fit.

And there's no better way to end a day of dancing than to wrap yourself up in a Heat Holders Snuggle Up Blanket, ideal if you want to try and get a little shut-eye during your trip. They are also machine washable so you don't need to worry about getting them dirty.

No matter whether you're off to relax and enjoy your favourite bands or get hard and heavy in the moshpit, Heat Holders has you covered, whatever the weather.

We have three packages of the following:

Students' lives ruined by hit and run driver

A LEYTONSTONE woman has been jailed after she crashed into three students as they walked home.

Toma Bruziene, 34, of John Walsh Tower, was jailed for three years and four months after pleading guilty to three counts of causing serious injury by dangerous driving and failing to stop at the scene of a collision.

Bruziene was also banned from driving for four years with an extension period of 20 months – increasing the length of disqualification. She was sentenced on Tuesday July 5 at Blackfriars Crown Court.

Bruziene was driving a Toyota Avensis when she hit the three women in their 20s as they were walking back to their student accommodation in York Way, near Kings Cross, at 4.05am on Saturday, August 29, 2015.

Her car mounted the pavement after she lost control of the vehicle, uprooting a small tree and hitting the three American women with such force that they were thrown six metres from where they stood.

Bruziene then failed to stop and abandoned the car in a private car park two streets away.

She was followed by a taxi driver, who had witnessed the incident and had attempted to detain her.

Bruziene surrendered herself to police the following day and was charged.

She was not charged with drink-drive offences, but the judge implied that alcohol was a factor.

All three victims were students at the New York University, London Site.

One sustained a severe head injury and fractures to her neck. All three suffered numerous fractures and cuts.

Detective Sergeant Chris Osborne, of the Met's Serious Collision Investigation Unit, said: "It was a miracle all three women survived."

Amy gives outdoor gym her seal of approval

PARALYMPIC swimmer Amy Marren has opened a new gym at Queen's Hospital in Romford.

The outdoor gym, which has been funded by the King George and Queen's Hospitals Charity, includes exercise bikes, a cross trainer, hand bike and leg press.

It is for staff, visitors and residents to use, and will help patients in their rehabilitation, overseen by the hospital's physiotherapists.

Some equipment, such as the hand bike, is also more accessible for disabled people.

Amy, 17, of Hornchurch, said: "It's a great thing, there are so many spaces in Havering which could be put to use and this is tried and tested, you do see people using them.

"People visit the hospital daily so it's a great place to have one and helps people to fit some exercise into their day.

"It's much better than sitting at home."

Amy, who is set to take part in the Paralympics in Rio in August, added: "My training is going well and I'm really looking forward to it. It's my second Paralympics but it's still sinking in."

Barking, Havering and Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust, which runs Queen's, plans to introduce an outdoor gym at its other site, King George Hospital in Goodmayes.

Amy first learnt to swim when she was four and trains with Romford Town Swimming Club. At London 2012, she made her Games debut as one of the youngest athletes in ParalympicsGB.

Council cohesion vow after EU referendum result

WALTHAM Forest Council has pledged its ongoing commitment to supporting and promoting community cohesion in light of a national rise in hate crime since Britain voted to leave the European Union.

A council spokesman said that the council reaffirmed its pledge to help ensure Waltham Forest is a tolerant borough in which everyone feels safe. He added that the council's overarching vision was to ensure the borough was a place where everyone can enjoy a quality life.

Cllr Liaquat Ali MBE, cabinet member for community safety and cohesion, said: "Our sense of community and of belonging, and the need to always treat others with respect, helps to make Waltham Forest such a great place to call home.

"We've been shocked and saddened to see the various news reports that have emerged in the aftermath of the EU referendum result, indicating a rise in incidents of hate crime in some areas.

"This is not a trend we've experienced in Waltham Forest, but we remain vigilant and continue to actively promote community cohesion, signpost support services and work with local partners, including Waltham Forest Police, to ensure our streets are safe for all who live, work and visit here."

Hate crimes can be reported to police by phoning 101, or in an emergency call 999.

For more information about organisations supporting victims of hate crime, visit www.walthamforest.gov.uk.

GIFT: Damary Dawkins, front, with Warren Tingling, friends and Tropical Bay ward staff

Play boost for young patients

A DONATION has been made to a ward at Queen's Hospital in Romford to thank staff for looking after a young leukaemia patient.

Damary Dawkins, 10, has been treated on the Tropical Bay ward at the hospital, run by Barking, Havering and Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust, over the past year.

The £500 gift was presented to staff by Warren Tingling, master of the Masonic Centre Lodge 3701, which is based in Holborn.

Warren is a member of the Euro Dagenham Football Club, which Damary plays for, and decided to donate the money to the ward for a new games console, to keep young patients amused when they are in hospital.

The donation was made to the Queen's and King George Hospitals Charity.

Warren said: "Damary has been training with the club since he was six and he's never let his diagnosis change who he is. The other children he trains with treat him just the same as they always did and we keep him involved in playing football as much as possible."

"I wanted to donate this money to the charity to benefit other children on the ward where Damary will continue to receive treatment and care."

Luxury boat builder decks out Fiat 500

By Chris Russon

NAUTICAL nous is coming aboard the Fiat 500 as the car maker teams up with another Italian style icon in the shape of luxury boat builder Riva.

The car company is launching a Fiat 500 Riva which is fitted out in similar fashion to the famous speedboats which have graced riviera around the world for more than 60 years.

The limited edition 500 Riva comes with a special Sera Blue paint job similar to that used on Riva's current Aquariva Super speedboat which can sell for as much as £500,000.

There are special touches inside the car as well with the dash trimmed in a finish akin to that of the fine veneer of the Riva boats and an aquamarine display on the instrument panel.

The convertible Fiat 500 Riva also gets a new blue soft top while the hatchback has a panoramic glass roof as standard.

In addition to the exclusive colour, the mirror caps on the 500 Riva have a chrome finish, as do the handles and the bonnet trim.

Riva logos abound inside and out, while the dashboard is finished in hand-painted mahogany with a maple inlay.

That in itself required an innovative engineering process which involved the wood

being applied on to an ultralight carbon shell to ensure stability, flexibility and strength.

The maple inlays were inserted by hand, making each creation a one-off.

The door sills and gear knob are also carved from a solid piece of mahogany, while the seats are trimmed in exclusive ivory leather created by Italian high class furniture designers Poltrona Frau.

Even the floor mats have been specially created with ivory hems and contrasting Sera Blue stitching – as is the boot mat that also features a wood insert with Riva lettering.

Fiat says the 500 Riva will be available in the UK at the end of August with 1.2-litre 69hp, TwinAir 85hp and TwinAir 105hp engine options.

And while the current 500 range is priced from £11,050 the company has yet to give an indication of what the luxurious Riva special will cost.

But to add a little more exclusivity, the first 500 cars will have a numbered limited edition badge which can be personalised by the buyer.

TOUGH TALK FROM COOK

Speedway

LAKESIDE chief Jon Cook has vowed to do everything possible to get the club's play-off bid back on track.

The Vortex Hammers went down to a shock 48-42 home defeat at the hands of a patched-up Poole side who only had two of their starting seven riders available.

It was a savage blow which casts a shadow over their challenge for a top four spot and they need to bounce back with home wins over Wolverhampton (July 15) and Swindon (July 22).

Cook said: "I will be talking to the riders and key members of staff at the club on a private basis in the days ahead."

"We have to move forward and do whatever it takes to get the club back on the road to the play-offs.

"Apart from that, as for the result and performance against Poole, I addressed the issue with supporters on the night and there is nothing more to add where that is concerned."

The Vortex Hammers were undone by a Paul Starke master-class with 16+1 and 2012 world champion Chris Holder continued his fine run with 15.

Andreas Jonsson notched 11 for the home side who were without Edward Kennett.

LAKESIDE 42: Andreas Jonsson 11, Kim Nilsson 7+3, Richard Lawson 7+1, Lewis Kerr 7+1, Lewis Bridger 5+1, Robert Mear 3+2, Ben Morley 2, Edward Kennett R/R.
POOLE 48: Paul Starke 16+1, Chris Holder 15, Adam Ellis 9+1, Ricky Wells 7, Bradley Wilson-Dean 1, Aaron Summers 0, Hans Andersen R/R.

CHIEF: Jon Cook

Havering men still have promotion in their sights

Athletics

HAVERING men's British League squad are still in the promotion hunt after a fourth place finish in their third round fixture at a blustery Bournemouth on Saturday.

Josh Olawore won both sprints, with his 200m time faster than his recent club best and his 100m time being his fastest ever without excessive following wind. Josh also returned to long jump action to finish second in a season's best.

Lewis Bailey's PB placed him second in the 200m and Nathan Steele was third in the 100m, as was chaser Rob Warner who clocked a season's best for third to defy the windy conditions. The gusts has earlier caused the pole vault to be cancelled on safety grounds. Jason Lendon defied a calf injury to finish the B chase in fifth.

The rest of the track team were affected by withdrawals but battled hard for points as the hurdles pairing of George Hadler and Karl Tucker were both fourth in the 400m hurdles event while Jamie Buckley-Stanton (800m and 1500m) and veteran Matt Bland (800m and 5000m) added middle distance points, as did Ben Davis on his league debut. Matt Owers and Sydney Conteh completed the track line up with 400m points.

The throwers again produced a rich crop of points as Laurence Goodacre and Emmanuel Quarshie scored maximum points in the shot, Duane Jibunoh won the discus and was javelin runner-up, and his B string partners Graham Holder and Sam Harrison were second and fourth in the discus and javelin respectively. Holder was also third in the hammer. Also on the field Chuko Cribb was runner-up in both high and triple jumps.

The squad are second, a point behind Newquay and Par and a point ahead of Bournemouth ahead of the deciding fixture at Yeovil on August 6.

Team manager Peter Estcourt said: "It was disappointing to lose third place to Trafford as we were ahead of them going into the relays."

"The squad did their best to keep us in touch of promotion but with several regulars unavailable we face a tough fight for one of the two promotion places."

■ Excellent individual results could not stop Havering ladies finishing seventh in their second of two UK Women's league fixtures at Southampton on Saturday.

GB International Lauren Deadman provided a boost to the squad with front-running victories in both the 3000m and 1500m. Her 3000m run of 9:15.8 which saw her lap over half the field bettered the listed divisional record by almost 15 seconds and her winning 1500m time was just a tenth outside the divisional mark. Lauren also showed good speed with the fastest club split in the 4x400m relay. Vicky Smith partnered her in her usual style with fourth and fifth place points, with the 3000m a season's best.

Bethan Siddons was in superb form, winning the high jump before improving her triple jump best for third and stepping in to fill a gap in the B sprint hurdles, for another third place. Claire Brennan's 400m hurdles season's best produced her first B string win for five years and she added sprint hurdles and high jump points. In the A 400m hurdles Michelle Hughes's season's best placed second and she was also second in the long jump, as was B string Zoe Young with her best this year.

Emma Christmas won the B javelin as Louise Lacy was third in the A, and Georgie Taylor and Rachel Forder were fifth and second respectively in the discus, with Georgie and league debutant Rachel Evans were fifth and fourth in the shot.

Nina Brennan shrugged off injury to run in the 400m and 4x400m relay and an unwell Lucy Bailey added sprint points.

The sprint relay squad showed team spirit as javelin thrower Emma Christmas and high jumper Bethan Siddons were drafted in alongside Michelle Hughes and Claire Brennan.

Team manager Tony Benton was

left to rue late withdrawals which meant the short-handed team lost ground on their rivals.

They now face a difficult deciding fixture in Manchester next month to retain their position in Division 2 which they have held since 2009.

Non-league round-up

Ex-Canvey man joins Rovers

By Brian Jeeves

RYMAN League Division One North outfit Great Woking Rovers have signed versatile former Canvey Island man Leon Gordon.

After starting his career with Sky Bet League Two club Wycombe Wanderers, Gordon went on to represent a number of clubs including Concord Rangers and Brentwood Town, as well as a successful spell with the Gulls where he was a crowd favourite.

The 30-year-old links up with Gary Ansell's men, offering a wealth of experience in a number of positions. His signing will be seen as a statement of intent by the Rovers, who are keen to mount a serious promotion push.

National League outfit Braintree Town have signed experienced striker Jack Midson from Eastleigh.

The 32-year-old frontman links up with the Iron, having previously accumulated Football League experience with Oxford United, AFC Wimbledon, as well as short loan spells with Essex neighbours Southend United and Barnet.

Speaking to the Braintree Town official website, manager Jamie Day said: "Jack has a proven pedigree at this level and above. I think he got a bit frustrated last season but I know he's raring to go and will do really well for us."

Day is pleased with the way his pre-season preparations were panning out, saying: "The lads are working hard in training, but I've still got a bit of work to finish over the next few days when I hope to add two or three more players to the squad."

National League South club Chelmsford City have been boosted by the news that six of the squad have signed new deals with the club.

Joe Welch, Daniel Blanchett, Lee Sawyer, Harry Morgan, Frank Merrifield and Shamir Mullings have all put pen to paper, joining Hugo Skepelhorn, Sheldon Sellars, Luke Daley, Max Cornhill, Ashley Miller, Mark Haines, Anthony Church, Billy Bricknell and Adam Bailey-Dennis who have all committed to the Clarets in recent weeks.

This will come as great news to boss Rod Stringer, who is building a team City supporters hope will challenge for promotion.

Essex Senior Leaguers Basildon United have bolstered their ranks with the signing of former Burnham Ramblers and Great Woking Rovers midfielder Joe Skeels.

Skeels is the latest of a number of new faces at Gardiners close, including Reece Tranter from Manford Way, who finished the last campaign as the ProKit UK Essex Olympian League's leading goalscorer.

Speaking to Yellow Sport, Bees manager Aaron Bloxham said: "I'm delighted to have signed Joe. He has a old head on young shoulders and understands what is required to compete at the top end of the table."

"He's a top lad, with a great delivery of the ball, just what we were looking for."

Ambitious Ryman League Division One North new boys, Bowers & Pitsea, have been making waves with local youngsters as their popular Saturday morning Community Youth Football programme continues to flourish.

Twenty-seven children attended the first session back in May, and they have since risen to around 100.

Bowers head of youth Joe Corey said: "We have two hours on a Saturday morning when the kids can come along to the Len Salmon Stadium a play football."

"The sessions are free, but the club do ask that a yearly membership to the Bowers & Pitsea FC Social Club is purchased, at the cost of £10."

"This offers the use of the clubhouse and various facilities at the Len Salmon Stadium."

Winger Antonio signs a new deal with West Ham

HIGHLY rated winger Michael Antonio has put pen to paper on a new contract with West Ham United.

The 26-year-old joined the east Londoners at the start of last season for a reported £7million from Championship club Nottingham Forest.

He became a pivotal part of the Hammers' successful campaign, scoring nine goals along the way, including a dramatic winner against Tottenham Hotspur, and was on the score sheet as West Ham beat Manchester United 3-2 in the final game at the Boleyn Ground.

The new deal will see Antonio remain at the London Stadium until 2020.

Speaking to the club's official website, he said: "I am delighted to have signed a new contract. I am happy that the manager and the chairman have showed their belief in me to give me a new deal."
